Description

Large blackened wooden statue of Archangel Michael overcoming the Devil.devil, 17th century, total height 97 cm . Good condition,some cracks, dents ... but what is very rare: complete, with originaloriginal wings, the spear may have been changed. Theserepresentations were in vogue in the 17th century, as St. Michael is theof the celestial armies, and since war was a central preoccupationwas a central concern in those days, praying to St. Michael was a kind of divinedivine protection against evil. They are exceptional on the art market, note the beauty of the movement, the peaceful, serene air of the archangel in the midst of battleas if it were easy for him, while the devil grimaces in pain.pain.
