

Pair Of Pineapple Holders In White Granite Opaline With Baccarat Knife Pendants

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Opale

Diameter : 10 cm

Height : 25 cm

Description

From Charles X onwards, pineapples became a very fashionable object of desire, a rare and above all very expensive fruit. Pineapple holders are usually made of opaline and crystal, like these two models from the mid-19th century. They are in satin-finish white opaline with a wavy green border and gold stars. The pendants are Baccarat cut clear crystal. Shipping in France and internationally, contact me for details
