Description

Oil on canvas signed B. Muracciole, depicting a luminous country view. This painting evokes the charm and gentleness of the French countryside. The artist's mastery of materials and shades of green convey the freshness of nature. The vivid, textured brushstrokes catch the light magnificently, giving great depth to this undergrowth. A work of great serenity, with irresistible bucolic charm. Bernard Muracciole painted a great deal of French nature in the mid-twentieth century. His verdant landscapes often feature wooded edges, ponds, country lanes or views of small villages through foliage. This is generous oil painting, often worked in impasto .

Bernard Muracciole was one of a generation of post-war painters who kept alive the great tradition of French plein-air landscapes,
