Description

A stylish and elegant pair of faux bamboo bedside tables, beautifully crafted with warm satin birch veneers and classical bamboo-form detailing. Designed in a timeless decorative style, these versatile tables work equally well as bedside tables, lamp tables, or refined living room side tables. Each table features a single drawer with attractive brass handles, above an open lower shelf that provides practical additional storage for books, decorative objects, or everyday essentials. The faux bamboo moulding to the drawer fronts, top edges, and legs gives the pair a sophisticated campaign-style influence, while maintaining a clean and understated elegance. The tops and lower shelves are veneered in beautifully figured satin birch, displaying a striking rippled grain that adds warmth and visual movement.
