Description

A beautifully balanced French Art Deco display sideboard, crafted in richly figured burr Thuya and showcasing the distinctive warmth and movement associated with this highly prized veneer. The façade is particularly striking, with an even, shimmering pattern across the surface, creating a luxurious and refined presence. The central section features a glazed display door, opening to reveal two glass shelves -- ideal for showcasing decorative pieces, glassware, or collectibles within a living room or dining room setting. This is flanked by two gently curved cupboard doors, a hallmark of French Art Deco design, softening the overall silhouette and adding a sense of fluidity to the piece. The cabinet sits on a contrasting ebonised plinth base, which grounds the warmth of the thuya and provides a
