Description

Pair of garnet-set ear pendants, French work, late 19th century. Ear pendants set on the upper part of an 18-carat (750-milliem) yellow gold frame, with a star design, and a flap system at the back to put your earrings on. The pendants are entirely set with garnets mounted on pearls on a vermeil (silver and yellow gold) setting. Gross weight: 6.5 g Total length: 6 cm Beautiful pair of openwork pendants with a very luminous design, we note a small metal shortage on the end of one tassel. Delivery offered with declared value and insurance in France, accompanied by its invoice by e-mail.
