Description

French Empire style folding desk, burr walnut veneer and bronze ornaments. This elegant French Empire-style folding secretary is a magnificent example of high-quality 19th-century craftsmanship. Its rich burr walnut finish and solid bronze columns with gilded detailing give it a majestic, luxurious allure. The secretary features three spacious drawers, a flap and a surprising interior with its many original drawers, niches and mirror panels. The superb wood grain, refined finish and high-gloss hand polishing make this piece a true decorative object. Both decorative and functional, this antique French secretary is an invaluable addition to a classic, elegant or eclectic interior. A timeless piece of Empire furniture, imbued with character, elegance and exceptional craftsmanship. There is a crack in the
