Description

A refined pair of Art Deco Italian stools from the 1920s, crafted in rich-grained walnut and professionally restored to highlight their sculptural geometry and warm tone. Each piece features a delicately curved wooden frame resting on four black lacquered legs, topped with its original velvet, adorned with a geometric pattern in shades of amber, sienna and gold. The luxurious, textured fabric reflects the tactile refinement and artistic experimentation of nascent Italian modernism, while the solid walnut frame testifies to the craftsmanship and elegance characteristic of the Art Deco period. Their compact proportions make them versatile accents, perfect alongside an armchair, dressing table or as decorative seating in sophisticated interiors.
