Description

The oval-shaped "Petit bonheur du jour", with a gallery top, opens to a drawer and two leaves. The belt opens to a drawer forming a writing table and rests on three curved legs joined by a brace shelf. The entire piece of furniture is inlaid with vases, utensils and Chinese scenes. Attributed to Charles Topino (circa 1742-1803) - cabinetmaker - master's degree obtained July 4, 1773: A prolific 18th-century cabinetmaker and great creator of fantasy furniture, Charles Topino's reputation rests on his rich furniture and inlaid utensils.
