Description

A beautiful painting depicting St. Francis in ecstasy, from the Papal States, executed around the mid-17th century, by a painter of Tuscan-Roman origin active in the Papal States, associated with artists highly active in the field of Tuscan devotional painting, such as Lazzaro Baldi, of whom very similar compositions of ecstasy are known. The frame, featuring faux-marble lacquer with gilded corners and engraved plant motifs, is contemporary to the canvas. The painting is on its original canvas and has never been re-stretched. We are offering this beautiful painting at a bargain price. The canvas measures 104 cm x 94 cm; including the original frame, the dimensions are 123 cm x 113 cm. We include a certificate of authenticity for both the painting and the frame with the sale.
