Description

Beautiful Louis XV - Louis XVI transitional style secretary in precious wood veneer and marquetry. It opens with three drawers in the lower part and a fourth drawer below the marble. The flap reveals two small drawers and a niche with a central shelf. The burgundy leather is in good condition, decorated with a fine gold frieze all around. The front and both sides are slightly domed and decorated with pretty floral motifs. Our piece of furniture is embellished with chased bronzes (falls, sabots, pull handles, keyholes). The whole is topped with a lovely veined marble molded in a "bec de corbin" shape. The flap lock works perfectly. This piece of furniture is a fine, high-quality early 20th-century workmanship. Dimensions: height 127 cm center depth 35.5 cm end depth 33.5 cm open flap depth
