Description

This piece reflects the eclectic tastes of the 19th century, strongly evoking the Louis XVI or Second Empire (Napoleon III) styles due to the rich ornamentation concentrated on the cornice and the complexity of the moldings. The Cornice (Pediment): The true focal point of the mirror, located at the top, is a richly carved crown featuring openwork motifs. At the center stands a stylized shell element (or central medallion), surrounded by leaf-like volutes, tendrils, and dynamic floral motifs of Neo-Baroque inspiration.Origin: FrancePeriod: second half of the 1800sStyle: Louis XVIDimensions: 91x165h cm
