Description

Pair of miniature paintings, presenting a musician couple, he in hunting costume and she in Country dress in chased and gilded bronze standing out against a faux porphyry background, in gilded wood frames. Early 19th century. Beautiful, refined object typical of souvenirs of the Grand Tour, the aristocratic educational journey across Europe undertaken by young men from the highest classes of European society from the 17th to the 19th century. Ideal for completing a 19th-century neoclassical decoration with one of those little details that make for an authentic atmosphere. Very decorative, as a pair. In very good condition, composed of antique elements from the early 19th century, the whole works very well and naturally. Superb quality mercury gilding in matte and gloss and chasing. Frames:
