Description

An interesting carved and gilded wooden high relief depicting the Madonna and Child, a work attributable to 18th-century Italian devotional art. The composition, set within a richly carved oval frame, depicts the Virgin holding the Child in a scene of intense tenderness and profound spirituality. The group emerges with remarkable vigor from the gilded background, creating a refined interplay of volumes and chiaroscuro; the soft modeling of the faces, the naturalness of the poses, and the elegant rendering of the drapery lend the whole a remarkable expressive quality. 36.5 x 32 cm
