Description

Elegant men's signet ring in 18-carat yellow gold, dating from the 1950s.This ring features a wide rectangular top set with polished black onyx, whose depth and intensity contrast harmoniously with the warm glow of the yellow gold. The shoulders are finely worked with geometric fluting typical of post-war aesthetics, giving the ensemble a look that is both sober and assertive.With its architectural lines and timeless design, this signet ring evokes the masculine refinement of the mid-twentieth century. It can be worn daily as a statement piece or join a collection of antique and vintage jewelry.Circa 1950.Features:18-carat yellow gold (750/1000)Natural black onyx plateEra: circa 1950Size: 64 / 66Total weight: 11.40gTray height: 70mmTray width: 150mmTray shape:
