Description

This Chantilly porcelain box is a true collector's item that embodies the refinement of French tableware. Made by the famous manufacture whose heritage dates back to 1725, it bears witness to exceptional craftsmanship. The lid and body of the box are adorned with a delicate florette decoration, hand-painted with great finesse, offering a timeless elegance to the whole. The fine, luminous porcelain is sublimated by vibrant colors and a chased gilded bronze mount that emphasizes the curved lines of the piece.

CONDITION:The box is in good overall condition. It shows a few traces of natural wear on the gold edging, visible in the photographs, which adds to the authentic charm and lived-in feel of this historic piece.
