Description

A four-panel screen painted on a gold background, depicting a branch of cherry blossoms (sakura). The large, sinuous branch stretches across the surface horizontally, while the numerous, closely clustered flowers are painted with light-colored petals, accompanied by pale green leaves. In the background, stylized cloud motifs are arranged in a circular pattern, with soft lines that introduce rhythm and movement to the composition. Signed lower right. Period: Showa, mid-20th century. Dimensions: 91 x 179.5 cm. Condition: The screen is in excellent condition with slight signs of aging around the hinges and wear on the lacquered frame.
