Description

A shippo cloisonné ginbari vase with a translucent ruby-red ground, depicting a garden of blooming chrysanthemums (kiku). The surface features an engraved design beneath the transparent enamel, with motifs of bamboo leaves and small birds in flight. On the front, a rich floral composition unfolds in polychrome enamels, showcasing chrysanthemums of various varieties. The contrast between the deep red ground and the decoration creates a luminous effect with remarkable depth.

Period: Taisho period, circa 1920

Dimensions: 24 × 15.5 cm

Condition: Excellent condition.
