Description

Rare gold lorgnette, ram's head hallmark. It opens to four draws. The very finely chased body in rose and green gold features a decoration of flowers and fruit in relief. It is signed Lemièrre, Palais Royal, N° 26. This precious lorgnette is preserved in its red morocco case lined with Empire velvet. Lemièrre was a Parisian optician and inventor of the early 19th century. He was established in the Palais Royal, the center of luxury boutiques. He sold theatrical lorgnettes, long sights and was a pioneer of focusable theatrical binoculars. Our model features several ram's head hallmarks, a mark of gold between 1819 and 1838. Gross weight: 120g Deployed length: 7.5 cm Diameter: 4 cm The optics work perfectly ....
