

Carved Oak Hunting Lodge Sideboard In The Henri II Style, Late 19th Century

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oak

Length : 148

Height : 248

Depth : 65

Description

Henri II style carved oak hunting lodge buffet, late 19th century. Remarkable richly carved oak hunting lodge buffet, Henri II style, made in the late 19th century. This piece of furniture is composed of two bodies. The upper part opens out through two large glass doors framed by twisted columns, allowing glassware, trophies or collectibles to be displayed. The interior is fitted with shelves providing ample storage space. The lower part opens with two leaves carved in high relief with hunting trophies, horns, game, foliage and hunting attributes. Two drawers in the belt, adorned with bunches of grapes and vegetal motifs, complete the ensemble. The abundant sculpture is found throughout the façade: twisted columns, leafy moldings, Renaissance scrolls and an imposing architectural cornice centered on a

Dealer

Portier

Mobilier, Tableaux, Bibelots du 17eme jusqu'au 20eme siècle

Mobile : 0665015170

12 route d'autun

Broye 71180

lion mascarons. The flattened ball feet and generous proportions reinforce the prestigious character of this piece destined for country homes and hunting lodges. By its quality of execution and the richness of its decoration, this piece of furniture is a superb testimony to the taste for the Renaissance style in the late 19th century. Era: late 19th century, circa 1880-1900. Style: Henri II - French Renaissance. Material : solid carved oak. Dimensions : H 248 x W 148 x D 65 cm. Very good overall condition with a beautiful original patina. An ideal character piece for a hunting lodge, library, study or classic-style interior.