Description

The sculptor UgoCipriani was born in Florence in 1887 (died in 1960).touching sculptures like this onelike this one, which I call "Mother's gaze".This terracottais signed Luino, a small town in Lombardy that the artist had to flee to France.Mussolini clearly didn't please him. The gazes thatwhich intensify as the light shines around the group, are extremelyare of extreme depth, very much in keeping with the 1930s. The mother is about to receivereceive the child's kiss as a gift. These feelings are translated by the artistwith rare dexterity.
