Moroccan Child's Koumya Ring, Silver And Blond Horn - Morocco, 1894-95

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Moroccan child's dagger called koumya, silver and horn - Morocco, 1894-95Rare child's model of small dimensions. Horn handle with chased silver pommel and ferrule. Chased silver scabbard. 2 silver certification marks on the scabbard, reading 312 and MO.312 for the date 1312 of the Hegira calendar, corresponding to the years 1894 and 1895 of the Gregorian calendar. Petty dents to the silver of the pommel and to the bottom of the scabbard.Accents to the horn. Handle has some play. Slightly deformed blade.Length 23cmLength without scabbard 21,5cmBlade length 11cmWeight 130grWeight without scabbard 82grscabbard weight 48gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120