Description

Elegant bronze and brass chandelier adorned with numerous cut crystal pendants, created in the taste of the Louis XV style during the 20th century. This model features a richly decorated six-arm structure, embellished with finely cut crystal pendants and drops, offering a refined play of light. The bronze frame, with its curved, flowing lines, underlines the elegance and decorative character of the whole. The central glass shaft and abundant crystal trim add sparkle and lightness, making this piece ideal for a classic or chic contemporary interior. We'll particularly appreciate the quality of the crystal, the richness of the composition as well as the beautiful presence of this chandelier. Materials: bronze, brass and crystal Style: Louis XV Era: 20th century Number of lights: 6 Dimensions: height 94
