Description

We are pleased to present this elegant antique Italian chest of drawers dating from the first half of the 18th century. A piece of exceptional refinement.Crafted from fine walnut, it features a refined, clean-lined design that gives it a very elegant appearance. A geometric inlay pattern in the walnut creates a unique visual accent without being excessive. The decoration is present on the fronts and sides of the drawers, crafted using traditional cabinetmaking techniques with small pieces of wood in various shades. This decoration evokes a deeply neoclassical aesthetic. From a functional standpoint, it offers four convenient and practical drawers. The numerous detailed photos you will see showcase the construction details typical of 18th-century cabinetmaking. You can certainly consider placing this exquisite
