Description

Handmade Afghan Ziegler rug in wool, circa 1960. This 19th-century style rug is beautifully crafted using a fine weave and a delicate pattern. It is a Ziegler rug, a rare and timeless piece. The very low pile creates subtle variations in color depending on the viewing angle. To give the Ziegler rug an original, worn look, it is sun-bleached and finished with sandstone. The rug not only achieves a worn look but also features a design with wide borders, attractive colors, and centered motifs. Thanks to its antique appearance, the Ziegler rug exudes a warm and inviting atmosphere. Size : 360x280 cm Condition : As is. The fringe has been cut short on one side. There is some wool loss on the two opposite corners. While the wool shows significant wear throughout, the rug retains all its charm, warmth,
