

Large Silver-plated Metal Tray, Maison J. Piault, Paris, Louis XV Style, 19th Century

1 150 EUR

Signature : Jules Piault Paris

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Length : 78 cm

Width : 51 cm

Description

Large Silver-Plated Metal Tray, Maison J. Piault, Paris, Louis XV Style, 19th Century
Livraison monde, Colis sécurisé. Dimensions: Length 78 cm Width 51 cm Style Naturaliste Louis XV Rocaille Weight 5 kilos. Condition: of a very beautiful thickness, the Ciselure is of a very great finesse and execution, Superb original silver plating with matte and brilliant and guilloché. Traces of use and age. Main Features- Silhouette & Architecture : This large tray is distinguished by its superb scalloped shape, highlighted by thick, sinuous molding of great depth, characteristic of the purest Louis XV style.- Interior decor: The back is richly engraved with a profusion of plant motifs, including bouquets of flowers, delicate foliage and stylized acanthus leaves. The marli is embellished with elegant gadroons, while the

Dealer

Decorhome

Objet d'art et Mobilier Ancien

Tel : 0749409250

Quartier gare

Angers 49000

center features a highly refined cartouche, ready to receive or bearing stylized initials.- Handles & Borders: The contour is punctuated by two superb chased designs of shells and acanthus leaves. It is extended by two lateral handles of great ornamental richness, magnified by motifs of shells, flowers and foliage.Orfèvre : Jules Piault (active from 1856 to 1887) Leading goldsmith and cutlery house in Paris , Supplier to Emperor Napoleon III.World delivery, secure parcel.