Description

Elegant ring in 18-carat (750/1000) yellow gold with a supple, sculptural design.Its undulating motif, composed of large twisted gadroons, creates a subtle play of light and relief. A few delicately set single-cut diamonds punctuate the setting and add discreet sparkle to the ensemble. Their total weight is estimated at around 0.02 carat.With its fluid lines and harmonious volume, this ring evokes the jewelry creations of the 1980s and 1990s, when material and movement occupied a central place in the jewel's design.Both precious and easy to wear, it will accompany both an everyday outfit and a dressier occasion.18-carat yellow gold (750/1000)Hole 750Single-cut diamondsTotal diamond weight: approx. 0.02 caratFinger size: 50US size: 5¼Width: approx. 6 mmEra: late 20th
