Description

Charming and particularly touching, this magnificent bronze sculpture by Adrien Gaudez depicts a mother teaching her reading to her young daughter. This scene full of tenderness and emotion is a delicate illustration of the transmission of knowledge and family affection. This amiable, charming depiction is immediately captivating the softness of the attitudes and the naturalness of the expressions. The bronze is richly detailed and perfectly executed, testifying to the great talent of its creator. Every element, from the folds of the clothes to the facial features has been worked with remarkable attention to detail. The work is embellished with an attractive cartouche bearing the title "Premières Leçons" (First Lessons), which elegantly underlines the composition's touching theme. Adrien Gaudez
