Lion Of Belfort

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Width : 41

Height : 24,5

Depth : 15,3

Description

A glazzed terra cotta lilac-blue statuette, based on the Lion of Belfort made between 1875 and 1880 by Auguste Bartholdi (1834-1904). The lion is lying down, slightly straightened on his front legs. It symbolises the resistance of Belfort against the Prussian army during the Franco-Prussian War.Attributed to a workshop in Soufflenheim (Alsace) circa 1950.Period : mid-20th centuryHeigh : 24,5 cmWidth : 41 cmDepth : 15,3 cmCondition : Two small restored chips

Dealer

Antiquités BASTIAN

House founded in 1871

Tel : +33 (0)3 88 32 45 93

24 place de la Cathédrale

Strasbourg 67000