Description

Pair of neoclassical Green Jasper cookie medallions - Gilded bronze, XIXe century Exquisite pair of oval Green Jasper cookie medallions, finely decorated with neoclassical-inspired scenes in relief, attributed to the Wedgwood workshops. Each composition reveals the purity of the modeling, the delicacy of the figures and the refined sobriety typical of jasperware creations of the XIXe century. The plates are presented in their gilded bronze frames, chased with a crossed ribbon decoration, and surmounted by an exquisite "Marie-Antoinette" bow. At the back, a small attachment ring provides an elegant wall setting, ideal in both classic and contemporary interiors. Dimensions: 20.5 cm (h) - 14 cm (w) Attribution: Wedgwood Epoque: XIXe siècle Sought-after decorative pieces, seductive for their graphic presence, the quality of their cookie and the harmony between the jasper green and the brilliance of the bronze. A rare pair, perfect for enriching a collection of neoclassical decorative arts or creating a sophisticated focal point in an interior. Good overall condition: no cracks, no restorations, no chips. Please note: slight wear in the upper right-hand section on one of the medallions, with no impact on the reading of the scene or on the presentation.
