Description

An elegant female bust in white glazed terracotta, depicting the goddess Diana, an iconic figure of classical mythology. The sculpture features harmonious and elegant features, with her gaze turned to the side, her hair gathered in an elaborate chignon, and delicate drapery that enhances the figure. The work draws inspiration from Greco-Roman and Neoclassical statuary, reinterpreted through exquisite craftsmanship and a luminous glazed finish. The glossy surface enhances the softness of the forms and the attention to detail, giving the bust a striking and timeless presence. A highly charming decorative piece, ideal for classical interiors, libraries, living rooms, professional offices, or collections dedicated to art and mythology. Its elegance makes it perfect both as a display piece and as a
