Description

Pair of 19th-century vases, from the Charles X period (Restoration era). This charming pair of porcelain vases features a floral cartouche on one side and a cartouche bearing the inscription "Amour" (Love) in gold lettering on the other, with two cornucopias overflowing with flowers at the base. They rest on square plinths. Very good overall condition, with a small (almost invisible) restoration to the top of the foot of one of them.
