Description

A rare set of twelve slender crystal flutes, featuring the characteristic decoration of the model known as "SS":- deep twisted ribs at the base of the bowl,- fine vertical engravings in the central section.This model, emblematic of French production during the Restoration period (circa 1825-1835), was produced by both Baccarat and Saint-Louis, whose creations were very similar at the time, making precise attribution difficult.Condition: excellent overall condition; no chips, sharp engravings, beautiful transparency and brilliance.
