Gold-plated Owl Corkscrew

580 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : 17cm fermé

Description

Figurative corkscrew in the shape of an owl.Brand / Manufacturer: BMF(Bayerische Metallwarenfabrik), a famous German manufacturer renownedfor its bar accessories and serving pieces in the mid-twentieth century.Germany / West Germany (Germany engraved on the body of the object, visible in the photo.An official BMF triangular hallmark is stamped on the metal metal, accompanied by the words "N° 24" or the indication of gold plating (visible in close-up in photo1960s - 1970s (Mid-Century Modern period).Physical Characteristics & MaterialsHeavy cast metal (usually brass or high-density zamak alloy).24-carat gold plating (High-end, polished, high-gloss finish typical of prestige versions of BMF's animal collection).Front: Textured,

Dealer

Antiquités Secrettand
Antiquaire , Expert membre de la CNES
Mobile : 06 80 25 18 13

17 Place Fleury
Beaune 21 200

detailed representation of an owl with expressive eyes and stylized plumage in reliefRear face: Elegantly and ergonomically designed linear plumage.Direct screw corkscrew ("T" type). The T-shaped handle at the topprovides a firm grip for extracting the cork by turning. Theflared base of the owl rests on the bottle neck to guide the worm.to guide the worm.If BMF bottle openers in the shape of a dolphin, sparrow or elephantthe large "Chouette" corkscrew model in gold-plated finish in gold-plated finish is a much rarer and sought-after barware piece.The gold plating retains a superb luster, with no major scratches or pronounced desilvering.Perfectly functional table utility and a truevintage decorative piece for a bar cart or collector's display case.collector's display case.