Description

A pair of Bayeux porcelain covered vases with rich polychrome decoration of Chinese scenes in reserves, enhanced by abundant fine gold gilding. The naturalistic handles imitating branches and the lids surmounted by figures testify to the refined craftsmanship of Bayeux manufacture in the mid-19th century..Very fine craftsmanship with particularly rich decoration and strong decorative presence. An elegant pair, representative of the taste for chinoiserie under the Second Empire. A very elegant pair, representative of the taste for chinoiserie under the Second Empire.
