Description

A beautiful Napoleon III period center table, crafted in mahogany and richly adorned with finely chased gilt bronze mounts. Its exceptional decoration comprises hand-painted Sèvres porcelain medallions depicting various figures from the French court, including a central portrait of Louis XVI, surrounded by female figures inspired by his era. The four-bracket base is lavishly decorated with foliage, garlands, rosettes, and neoclassical motifs, attesting to the high quality of cabinetmaking and bronze work. The piece makes a striking statement and is a collector's item as decorative as it is historically significant.
