Description

A pair of wrought-iron candlesticks with a cylindrical shaft adorned with a central turned knot, surmounting a tripod base with cut-out and hammered fins. The hand-worked surface features an irregular texture characteristic of forge-work. The flat cup-shaped wick completes the composition. The sober, angular design is in keeping with the Brutalist or artisanal movement of the 1950s-1970s.Wrought iron, 20th century. Pair.
