Description

Beautiful Provençal cabinet front in molded and carved oak, opening with two doors. The decoration features graceful scrolls of foliage and motifs inspired by 18th-century Provençal tradition. This front retains its antique hardware as well as its lock with functional key. It makes a fine decorative or reuse element for a restoration, wall covering or interior design project. Louis XV Provençal style work produced at the end of the 19th century. Good overall condition with wear and traces of time in keeping with its age. Delivery in mainland France
