Hermes Or Mercury Reattaching His Sandal, Bronze From The Grand Tour, 19th Century

2 850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Bronze

Height : 33 cm

Description

Large bronze of Hermes tying his sandals.Hermes or mercury appears in this fine bronze as a young man busy tying his sandals on a rock.this fine neoclassical bronze is of very fine quality and its patina is golden but slightly oxidized.the god has a superb face and he rests on a lightly worked granite block.there is a small lack of bronze at the tie of his garment. Perhaps he was carrying a quiver...as it dates from the first half of the XIX th century it is cast in several parts and one of the arms moves slightly.a very fine bronze of very fine quality with a superb neoclassical aesthetic, probably a souvenir of the grand tour.dimensions:33 cm highwe deliver and ship worldwide, please contact us for a precise quotation.

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème

antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310