Description

Folding armchair designed by Angel Pazmiño for Muebles de Estilo, one of the iconic models of mid-20th-century Ecuadorian design.Solid wood structure and embossed leather upholstery with pre-Columbian-inspired decor, worked entirely by hand. The backrest and seat feature a rich geometric and figurative decoration characteristic of Pazmiño's creations. At once decorative, this chair is a perfect complement to the Pazmiño collection.Both decorative and functional thanks to its folding system, this armchair fits perfectly into a vintage, ethnic or 20th-century design interior.Good overall condition, with a beautiful patina of use in keeping with its age.
