Description

Small Louis XV-style "encoignure" desk chair in wood, molding and leather. Epoque XIXth century. Distinguished by its enveloping gondola shape, specially designed to offer excellent working comfort, while remaining compact. It rests on 4 elegant curved legs. The central front leg is adorned at the top with a fine floral motif. Perfect stability. Upholstered in warm brown leather, adorned with a gilded frieze, slight traces of use, see photo. The seat, backrest and armrests are enhanced by decorative nail trimmings. The top of the wooden backrest is carved with a leaf motif. Comfortable, bouncy seat. Seat height: 45 cm. With its warm patina and curved lines, this chair combines the charm of an antique with the ergonomics of a cabinet chair. A piece of furniture with character, ideal for
