

Order Of The Lily Silver Medal

80 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Silver Order of the Lily medal 32 mm. 1,25 g. On May 3, 1814, King Louis XVIII arrived in the capital, accompanied by his brother Charles de France, the future Charles X. It was at this time that small medals with the fleur-de-lis began to circulate in Paris. It was then that small medals with the fleur de lys began to circulate in Paris. Very good condition. Ribbon missing.

Dealer

Atelier Charmain

Objets de curiosité et de vertu - Glyptique et Bijoux anciens

Mobile : 0615498775

Paris 75001