Description

Large covered vase forming a potiche, in Limoges porcelain, oven blue and double gold inlay on the lid and the shoulder. The body of our vase is decorated with a beautiful bouquet of roses and enclosed in a reserve, itself surrounded by a gold net. The back of the belly is decorated with a charming plant decor. Everything is entirely decorated by hand. The two sockets are enhanced with fine gold. This splendid vase rests on a shower stand encircled in finely chiseled brass with a decoration representing an openwork and braided intertwining, topped with a row of pearls. Signature S. Clavaud in the reserve at the bottom right for the decorator. Mark of the André Provot factory for the shaped part, accompanied by the words: True oven blue. Porcelain made and decorated in Limoges France. Real inlays,
