

Bird Screen - Early 20th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Length : par panneau 33 cm.

Height : 90 cm

Description

Elegant four-leaf folding screen in natural wood, early 20th century.early 20th century, each lined with a marouflaged oil-painted canvas,depicting a delicate, naturalistic décor of birds through the seasons.Each panel (33 x 90 cm) presents a distinct scene,treated with finesse and softness in a nuanced palette, evoking in turnseasonal variations: First panel (autumn): a marshland scene in luminous hues, with birds in flight by birds in flight that can be identified as seagulls or terns, against a background of terns, against a backdrop of distant relief drowned in a misty atmosphere. Second panel (summer): décor of reeds featuring two kingfishers, recognizable by their bright blue plumage and slender beaks, precisely painted in a stalking posture. Third panel (winter): cooler, more uncluttered

Dealer

Galerie Anticomania

Meuble et objet d'art XIX siècle

Tel : 0762606115

Marché Biron stand 90 ; 85 rue des Rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400

atmosphere around a stream featuring several robins (characteristic orange breast), some perched and others on the ground, suggesting an autumnal scene. autumnal scene. Fourth panel (spring): more abundant vegetation with nesting, with small passerines reminiscent of warblers or nightingales, treated in a naturalistic spirit, with a nest visible in the foreground. Slight missing at bottom of panelThe panel is framed by wooden jambs with original metal hinges. The reverse is covered with a sober fabric, edged with a decorative braid. High-quality decorative work, in the tradition in the tradition of early 20th-century naturalistic panels, ideal as a decorative element or interior divider. as a decorative element or interior divider. Dimensions : Height: 90 cm Sheet width : 33 cm Total unfolded width: approx. 132 cm Each painting measures approx. 75 x 27 cm Condition: good overall condition, slight loss at bottom of 4th panel panel