Description

Wamba Lomombia Yussuf Bauduin, Senegalese artist-sculptor Demba et Dupont after Paul Ducing's monumental work executed in bronze in 1923 during colonial rule, still in place in Dakar in front of the train station on Place du tirailleur. The choice of the two names was dictated by the fact that they are widespread in both Africa and France. Rare sculpture depicting a poilu and a tirailleur sénégalais. This work recounts the participation of French-speaking African fighters called tirailleurs sénégalais during WW1. Wamba Lomombia Yussuf Bauduin, Senegalese artist and sculptor
