Description

To store your gloves, or a few small objects, here's a box from the end of the XVIIIe century, sheathed in black leather and decorated on the lid with the arms of a cardinal, the bkason is surmounted by the hat and accosted by the cordelieres. The interior, in very good condition, is lined with a pink paper that was very fashionable at the end of the XVIIIe. The arms are difficult to read, as they are worn, but the overall condition is good.
