Description

Silver and vermeil service in its original caseElegant service presented in its satin-lined and sheathed period case. The set includes twelve silver spoons with vermeil spoons, a tea strainer, sugar tongs and matching tea scoop.The finely chased decoration on the handles, inspired by the French classical repertoire, lends this set a refined, timeless presence. The warm interior gilding of the spoons, characteristic of vermeil, adds sparkle and preciousness to the set.A testament to the art de vivre of the great houses of the late XIXe and early XXe centuries, this service captivates as much by the quality of its workmanship as by its remarkable state of preservation in its original box.A charming piece destined for lovers of antique silverware, collectors and fine table settings.Dimensions box
