PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

112-piece Porcelain Dinner Service Hache Et Pépin Lehalleur 19th Century

4 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Large porcelain dinner service, exceptional in quality and number of pieces, from the famous manufactureHache et Pépin Lehalleur in Vierzon and Paris, 19th century. White porcelain decorated with a double gilded fillet framing a parma-colored fillet. The handles and frétels of the serving pieces are gilded and embellishedwith elegant black palmettes and lambrequins. This service comprises 112 pieces. The name Hache Pépin-Lehalleur is synonymous with quality and prestige. In his report on the 1873 Vienna World's Fair, Victor Albert de Luynes wrote: "MM. Hacheand Pépin-Lehalleur have represented with the most recent progress and with great perfection the manufactureof French hard porcelain". (1845-1872).- 72 dinner plates- 24 soup plates- 1 large soup tureen and its frame- 2 round dishes- 3

Dealer

Philippe Cote Antiquités

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 06 07 40 27 64

Mobile : 06 07 40 27 64

35 rue du 8 Mai 1945

Chauffailles 71170

oval dishes - 1 large long oval dish- 2 sauce boats- 2 covered vegetable dishes on their frames- 1 salad bowl- 4 ravioli dishesAll pieces shown are in very good condition.Delivery on quotation.