Description

Enhanced engraving in the 18th century style, "Système Universel des Temps Passés Présents et Futurs", François Blaise Éditeur Chaussée Clignancourt 23, Imprimerie J. Broise Rue de Dunkerque 43. Mounted on cardboard. In very good condition. Very patriotic revival of one of the four "Tabula Riveriana" etchings and burin engravings after Felice Boscaratti (1721-1807) and Joseph Buffetti entitled "Mundi vetus, recens hinc posterum universale systema". This series of engravings was commissioned from Boscaratti in 1773 by the Veronese freemason philosopher Lazzaro Riviera, with the aim of translating into images his own interpretation of the pedagogical and moral doctrines of the time.
