Description

Refined and unique fireplace is crafted from fine white Carrara marble and red Verona marble.

Composed of three parts, the sides and the top, it is distinguished by its geometric tile decorations, reminiscent of the Florentine stonemason's style, lending a refined touch to the overall effect. The underframe is further embellished with a series of intertwined, fretworked arches, enhancing its elegance. This is a truly classy fireplace, capable of adding a touch of taste and antique charm to any space, lending an atmosphere of refined warmth and style. Florentine manufacture, from the Neo-Gothic period, around the end of the 19th century.
